

*Sakarya University
Engineering Faculty
Department of Geophysical Engineering*

Website

<https://jfm.sakarya.edu.tr/>

 (@SJeofizik) / Twitter

SAKARYA
UNIVERSITY

Sakarya
University

*Engineering Faculty
Introduction of the Geophysical Engineering
Department*

PROGRAM

In Our Department;

- 11 Academician
- 153 Students in total
- 125 Undergraduate Students
- 28 Graduate Students (Including several foreign students)
- 12 PhD Students

ABOUT US

WIDE RANGE
OF INTERNATIONAL
STUDENTS

Our Mission is;

- to educate individuals who are capable of advancing and applying knowledge and technology,
- to create a contemporary educational culture that is participatory, sharing and novel
- to educate individuals who have professional excellence and respect for social values.

Our Vision is;

to become a Geophysics Department that is well-known and highly respected not only in Turkey, but also around the World in research as well as in education, creating an environment

Accommodation

Students have the opportunity to stay for 2-3 people in the student dormitories on the campus.

There are many apartments, both furnished and unfurnished, within walking distance of the university.

Classrooms

Laboratories

Geophysical Engineering Department has

- Assigned classrooms
- A geophysical application training field
- An earthquake recording station
- Geophysics exploration instruments

Sports Facilities

Right across the Civil Engineering Department;
-There are Tennis Courts - Grass Football Field - Basketball Court.

Kartepe Ski Center

Paragliding

Social Activities

Sakarya province hosts numerous activities intertwined with nature. In the city, activity areas such as ski centers, paragliding, and rafting are located 20 minutes away from the campus. Bicycle use is widespread with urban cycling routes. Transportation is also provided by minibusses and buses.

Melen Watercourse- Rafting

Bike City

Lake Sapanca

Kent Park

Lake of Poyrazlar Nature Park - Camping Area

Karasu Beach

Intertwined with nature

Sakarya, one of the greenest provinces in Turkey, is famous for its camping and picnic areas. In addition, there is a public beach in the district of Karasu, which has a coast to the Black Sea.

Acarlar Floodplain

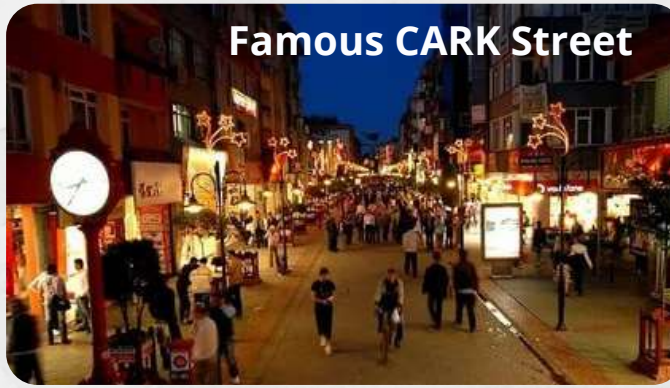

Cafe Street

Serdivan Cafes Street - 10 minutes to the campus.

Famous CARK Street

Cark Street - 20 minutes to the campus

AGORA Mall

There are three shopping malls: Agora Shopping Mall, Serdivan Shopping Mall, and Ada Shopping Center.

Local Tastes

Many Kebab Restaurants

World Cuisine

Central Location

Sakarya province, which is 1.5 hours from Istanbul and 3 hours from Ankara, is an attraction center due to its location.

Apart from the daily meals offered by the school cafeteria, there are many restaurants that contain the tastes of Turkish and International Cuisines.

Sabiha Gokcen Airport

Sabiha Gokcen Airport, which is 65 minutes away from Sakarya, is the most preferred airport for international and domestic flights.

High Speed Train Track

Arifiye HST, located in Sakarya, is based between the Istanbul-Ankara-Konya line.

Istanbul

