

SAU Senate Decisions regarding 2020 Spring/Summer Terms

1) Assessment and Evaluation

Additional measurement and evaluation activities such as assignments and term projects will be performed instead of the quizzes and Mid-Term exams. The assessment and evaluation activities which have already been carried out and graded during the semester will be valid (not deleted).

2) Academic Calendar

Academic calendar has been updated. It has been published on the University Dean's Office website.

3) Assignments and Projects

The type of measurement and evaluation activity that will be redefined instead of the regular term evaluations can only be a project or assignment. Assignments or projects will be collected digitally via Sabis, email or other auditable platforms.

4) UMDE

Those who continue their education within the scope of 3+1, 7+1 or UMDE will continue their education with distance courses to be opened in this context.

5) Internships

The remaining parts of the internships in associate and undergraduate programs will be completed in the summer within the periods to be determined later.

6) Faculty of Medicine

1st, 2nd and 3rd year students of the Faculty of Medicine will continue their education within the scope of these rules and exams will be held in June as a single committee. 4th and 5th year students, on the other hand, will continue their theoretical education about their remaining internships remotely, and the internship completion exams will be held after the practices specified by the clinics that are going to be determined in June.

7) Graduate Thesis Studies

Thesis proposal and thesis monitoring exams can be done online within the scope of postgraduate thesis studies. Thesis defense and proficiency exams are planned to be held face to face in June. The deadline for the thesis for the 2019-2020 Spring semester is August 14, 2020.

8) Pedagogical Formation

The school experience and teaching practice lessons of the students of the Faculty of Education, Faculty of Theology and pedagogical formation education will be carried out according to the schedule and method to be determined by the Ministry of National Education and YÖK.

9) Final, Make up and Single Course Exams

Final, make up and single course exams are planned to be held face to face on the dates specified in the academic calendar.
